Obligo

Deposit-Free Technology is Finally Here

There is no need to lock up your money.
Forget about cashier's checks, filling out tax forms and waiting months to get your security deposit back.

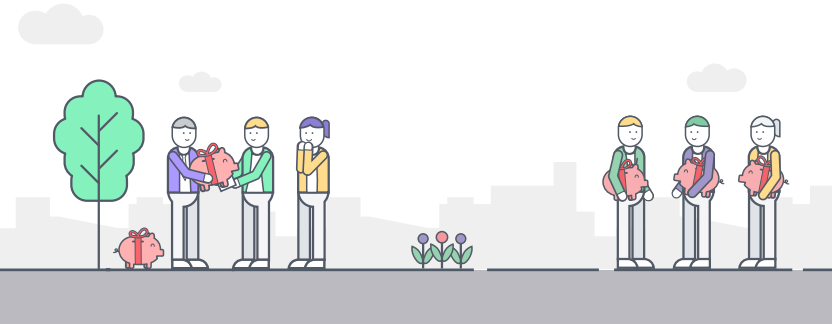

Welcome to Your Deposit-Free Home

Renters who qualify for Obligo are not required to pay a security deposit at this property. Instead they can give a secure billing authorization, allowing their landlord to bill them up to a limited amount.

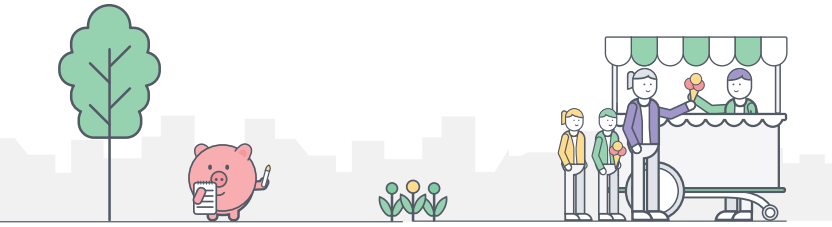

You're Good for it

Obligo will test your bank account balance history and available credit to see if you qualify for the deposit-free option. If you don't qualify or if you prefer to pay a traditional deposit, you can do so using the same online process.

Don't Spend it All at Once

We recommend using the deposit money you save to invest or reduce debt. This way, you can make money in the long term by using Obligo!

You're Still Accountable

If your landlord makes a claim, you will be able to pay the balance in installments using the payment method of your choice. Unreasonable claims may be disputed - just like a normal deposit.

Deposit-Free Living Starts Here

When it's time to pay the deposit you'll receive a secure link to Obligo with more details about our service.
