Seller's Property Disclosure – Residential

RE/MAX 200 REALTY

FloridaRealtors®

Notice to Licensee and Seller: Only the Seller should fill out this form.

Notice to Seller: Florida law[1] requires a Seller of a home to disclose to the Buyer all known facts that materially affect the value of the property being sold and that are not readily observable or known by the Buyer. This disclosure form is designed to help you comply with the law. However, this disclosure form may not address every significant issue that is unique to the Property. You should think about what you would want to know if you were buying the Property today; and if you need more space for additional information, comments, or explanations, check the Paragraph 12 checkbox and attach an addendum.

Notice to Buyer: The following representations are made by Seller and not by any real estate licensee. This disclosure is not a guaranty or warranty of any kind. It is not a substitute for any inspections, warranties, or professional advice you may wish to obtain. It is not a substitute for your own personal judgment and common sense. The following information is based only upon Seller's actual knowledge of the Property's condition. Sellers can disclose only what they actually know. Seller may not know about all material or significant items. You should have an independent, professional home inspection to verify the condition of the Property and determine the cost of repairs, if any. This disclosure is not a contract and is not intended to be a part of any contract for sale and purchase.

Seller makes the following disclosure regarding the property described as: 2104 Abercorn Court, Casselberry, FL 32707 (the "Property")

MEAGAN'S LAW: The Buyer and the Seller are hereby made aware that sexual predators may or may not live in the approximate area of the subject property and it is the parties responsibility, not the real estate licensees, to perform any and all due diligence into this matter prior to entering into a sales contract. The Florida Department of Law Enforcement has the following website below which may assist in the search. This is only one of many resources and neither party should rely on only one source. http://www3.fdle.state.fl.us/sexual_predators

SCHOOL ZONES: It is the sole responsibility of the Buyer to verify school districts for the subject Property. Information which may have been provided by Seller or real estate licensee(s) with regard to applicable school districts is based on historical information, is not warranted, and is subject to change and redistricting by the applicable authority. As school districts are subject to revision and final approval by school authorities, Buyer is encouraged to verify information on current and future zones prior to signing contract. While it is the responsibility of the Buyer to verify school districts for the subject Property it is highly recommended that the Seller disclose any pending rezoning or redistricting which Seller may be aware of on the Seller Disclosure Statement and refer the Buyer to the applicable County Public school authority for more information.

SELLER'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The undersigned Seller(s) represents that, to the best of the Seller's knowledge, the information set forth in the foregoing statement is accurate and complete. Although this disclosure statement is designed to assist the Seller in complying with the disclosure requirements under Florida law and to assist the Buyer(s) in evaluating the property being considered, the Seller does not intend this disclosure statement to be a warranty or guaranty of any kind. The undersigned Seller(s) hereby authorizes Listing Broker and Agents to disclose the information in this Disclosure Statement to prospective purchasers of the property and to real estate brokers and sales associates. The undersigned Seller(s) understand and agree that the Seller will notify Listing Broker and Agent in writing immediately if any information set forth in this disclosure statement becomes inaccurate or incorrect in any way through the passage of time.
